

About the Author:

Because of the Lord Jesus Christ and His great mercy, Kim Brandsma has had the privilege of serving in women’s ministries for over two decades—leading, speaking, and writing Bible studies; encouraging women to be passionate about the Lord; and inspiring them in their daily walk of obedience and faith. Kim has been married to her husband Doug for twenty-two years, a majority of which has been spent traveling with the Army. Throughout their many adventures together, Kim not only managed the daily affairs of the Brandsma household but also homeschooled their three children—Timothy, Aimee, and Elliott—who are now attending college. She has also had the pleasure of teaching developmental math classes at the local community college and tutoring math students of all ages in her home. Her greatest joy is sharing the love of God with those she meets, both inside and outside the church, and teaching God’s Word to individuals eager to learn and grow in their relationship with Jesus. Kim is delighted to share this Bible study with you. May God use it to enlighten, encourage, and strengthen you in your daily walk with the Savior. To Him be the glory!
